IMPORTANT DATES – updated October 2019

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Please find below all the updated and amended events for this term, I will send out updates regularly as other events are added. Please be aware that the children will return straight to school after the Christmas break as there is no Staff Training Day in January.

As this first half term draws to a close, may I also take this opportunity to thank you all for your ongoing support in relation to all aspects of school life. We are very lucky that you choose to send your child here to our school and are always available to help if needed.

Please don't hesitate to contact the School Office should you need any further information in relation to the dates below.

Kind Regards,

Mrs C Foulkes

(Headteacher)
